My favourite show at the moment is Friends. It's an old show from the 1990s and 2000s. It's about six friends in New York. Lots of funny things happen to them. I like the actors a lot because they are very funny. The only thing I don't like is that some stories or opinions of the characters are a bit old-fashioned. I recommend the show for people who like simple, funny shows or people who are interested in the past.

Hi Kaleb,
How are you? I'm really excited about meeting this week!
You asked me for some directions to get from the train station to my office, so here they are:
I'm looking forward to seeing you next week!
Oscar

I recently went to Marco's Café for the first time. And I'm glad I did.

Marco's Café is an Italian café in the town centre. I went there on a Sunday lunchtime with a friend. It was very busy, but all the staff were calm and polite.

I had a vegetarian pizza and my friend had a meat pizza. Both the pizzas arrived very quickly and were delicious. The only bad things about this place are that it's quite noisy and the food is quite expensive. I would recommend this place for a special meal, but it's too expensive to eat here every week.

My love for photography began when I was child. My grandfather was interested in photography and I was fascinated by all his cameras. When I was fifteen, my grandfather gave me a really nice camera and my learning journey with photography really began. My photos were OK, but I wanted to improve, so I watched lots of YouTube videos on photography.

Now I'm a better photographer and I post a lot of photos online, but I still want to learn more. Right now, I'm doing a course online to learn to improve.

In the future, I hope to do more courses and I plan to enter some photography competitions next year.
